Day Sailing trips to Prickly Pear

A new addition to our Day Sailing options with Captain Kevin is a trip to Prickly Pear, this is a secluded island situated between the mainland and Antigua's northern reef. Its wind sheltered western shore offers a delightful sandy beach with shallow water and coral reef extending several hundred metres beyond. This trip offers the opportunity for a break from sailing with lunch, drinks, sunbathing and excellent snorkelling all in one idyllic location. It is, in a word, perfect! This package is ideal for guests staying at hotels in the north of Antigua and also cruise ship visitors, as we depart from the dock in St. John's.
